Academic Search Elite

Provides 650 full text journals and magazines on subjects relating to sociology, including criminology, demography, ethnic and racial studies, gender studies, political sociology, social development, sociological theory and research, substance abuse and other addictions.

Access

To access from off campus click here, then enter your college username and password on the Vision West Nottinghamshire College authentication page. Once you have logged in go back to LRC Online and click on the online journal you would like to view.